Privacy Statement

The ADFASP resides within the Department of Defence.

The ADFASP conducts sporting activities for Wounded Injured and Ill (WII) personnel in accordance with Defence policy.

The ADFASP recognises and respects your privacy and is committed to the Australian Privacy Principles set out in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and manages data records in accordance with Privacy Principles, as detailed below.

How your information will be collected and to whom it may be disclosed

The EOI is an assessment of your suitability to take part in Adaptive Sporting activities and as such, requires significant personal data.

ADFASP collect information from and disclose your relevant personal information to:

- * you directly;*
- * Service headquarters;*
- * Veteran Sport Australia;*
- * ASP ADF medical staff and/or;*
- * Defence data management systems.*

The purpose for collecting your personal information

Your personal information will be collected by ADFASP to:

- * for the purpose of general control and administration by ADFASP staff.*

Disclosure of your information

The ADFASP will not use or disclose your personal information to any other person or organisation, other than those listed above, unless:

- * it would reasonably be expected by you that such a disclosure would occur and the disclosure is related to the ADFASP activity in which you are involved; and/or*
- * a 'permitted general situation' exists in relation to the use or disclosure of the information.*

A 'permitted general situation' is defined in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

Accessing and updating your personal information

If you wish to request access to your personal information held by ADFASP, please contact the ADFASP staff at adf.asp@defence.gov.au.
