Defence Stakeholders

How to access your required training for working at Defence.

Defence stakeholders include industry partners, academics, and contractors. LXP: Global is only available for Defence stakeholders, who do not have a Defence email address.

Available Courses

Below is a snapshot of the courses available. Speak to your sponsor about what training you need to complete.

- Work Health & Safety for Defence
- Fraud & Integrity Awareness
- SeMPRO AppOK: Consent Matters
- Annual Security Awareness
- Defence Sexual Misconduct Foundation of Knowledge
- Workplace Behaviour Mandatory Awareness
- Defence FDV Awareness Training
- Defence Youth Protection – Awareness
- Privacy In Practice

Access

You can create your own account, using your company email address on the registration page: lxpglobal.defence.gov.au and enrol in Defence mandatory training and other required courses.

Registration

Registration is automated for Defence stakeholders with a whitelisted company email domain.

New email domains will be verified with Defence sponsors by system administrators prior to account activation.

You must be able to identify your Defence sponsor as part of the registration process. The sponsor must have a Defence email address.

If a Defence Stakeholder with a non-approved domain attempts to register, Defence will contact the sponsor included in the registration process to verify the user account.
