A Guide for Employers of Veterans

Navy, Army and Airforce

A Guide for Employers

This guide is to assist employers seeking to engage an ADF veteran.

As a starting point, employers should pre-suppose the following:

- The veteran is reasonably expected to possess the skills to the rank level specified
- Though highly competent, the veteran may not possess all the skills catalogued here, depending on the career path followed
- The veteran has concurrently mastered a range of additional military skills
- The veteran has also mastered a range of technical, trade and specialist skills in addition to generalist or non-technical skills

This guide positions a veteran's abilities by comparing like-for-like training and skills at rank. It is not a complete representation of what every veteran (at each specified rank) has performed during their career; it's merely part of a veteran's extraordinary employment profile.
