6 Eligible service

- (1) For paragraph 4(1)(a) of the Regulation, service is eligible service if:
 - (a) the service is given by an ADF member or an allied foreign Defence Force member on deployment during the period of the declared operations;

Note: Service for an ADF member includes service undertaken while on an approved third-country deployment that has a corresponding declared operation.
 - (b) the service occurs for 30 days during one or more deployment, whether or not the service continues throughout the whole day and whether or not the 30 days are continuous; and
 - (c) the service is considered to be hazardous under paragraph 3(3)(a) of the Australian Operational Service Medal Regulation.
- (2) If an ADF member or an allied foreign Defence Force member gave service of a kind mentioned in paragraph (1)(a) of this section, but did not satisfy paragraph (1)(b) of this section because the member died or was evacuated due to service-related injury, illness or disability, the service given is taken to have occurred for 30 days during the deployment.

7 Conditions

- (1) An ADF member or allied foreign Defence Force member is not eligible for an award of the Australian Operational Service Medal (Indo-Pacific) for service during the same period for which they receive one of the following medals:
 - (a) The Australian Operational Service Medal.
 - (b) The Australian Service Medal.
- (2) For paragraph 4(3)(b) of the Regulation, and paragraph 6(1) of this instrument, the following conditions are determined in relation to service:
 - (a) the service must be given while the ADF member or allied foreign Defence Force member giving the service is assigned for Operational Duties on one or more declared operations; and
 - (b) no other period of eligible service can have been completed during the deployment which the service is given.

Note 1: The effect of paragraph (a) of this section is to exclude service involving non-operational duties such as: participation in training activities; exercises and conferences (with no planning objectives); liaison visits; lessons learnt/fact finding activities; and command/staff visits.

Note 2: The effect of paragraph (b) of this section is that an ADF member or allied foreign defence force member may be awarded only one Australian Operational Service Medal Indo-Pacific.
